

Community Programs

The GAE Statewide Spelling Bee is the culmination of months of exciting spelling competition by students throughout Georgia each year. The best spellers in the state compete for the Georgia championship and the right to represent Georgia at the Scripps-Howard National Spelling Bee in Washington, D.C. in May. Our 2018 champion was Kyu-Carlos Alegre from Carrollton Junior High School in Carrollton City. He tied for 42nd at the Scripps National Spelling Bee. The 2019 GAE State Spelling Bee will be held on March 15th at the Student Center on the campus of Georgia State University in Atlanta, GA. For information visit: www.gae.org/spellingbee.

NEA's Read Across America is an annual reading motivation and awareness program that calls for every child in every community to celebrate reading on or around Dr. Seuss's birthday. The official date is Saturday, March 2, 2019, when Georgia and the nation will celebrate Dr. Seuss's 114th birthday.

National Teacher Day/Appreciation Week: A day/week set aside to recognize and celebrate the accomplishments of the dedicated teachers who work day in and day out with the most precious resource our country has to offer—its children. National Teacher Day is always the first Tuesday in May.

American Education Week: December 4-10, 1921 became the first American Education Week, with the NEA and the American Legion as co-sponsors. In 1922, the U.S. Department of Education became a co-sponsor. Today, there are 12 co-sponsors: the NEA, the U.S. Department of Education, the National PTA, the American Legion, the American Association of School Administrators, The National School Boards Association, The American Federation of Teachers, the Council of Chief State School Officers, The National School Public Relations Association, the National Association of State Boards of Education, The National Association of Elementary School Principals, and the National Association of Secondary School Principals. American Education Week is held each year the week prior to Thanksgiving. The Wednesday of AEW is set aside to honor those men and women who work as Educational Support Professionals (ESPs).